EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ronald Santucci on February 12, 2007.

The claims have been amended as follows:

1. (Currently Amended) A method of forming an industrial fabric comprising the steps of:

providing a laminated substrate or base structure formed by forming separately a number of layers;

joining the layers together by warp knitted or stitch bonded binder yarns, wherein at least one of the layers is a reinforcing layer and at least one of the layers is a layer for inhibiting flow-through of coatings to be applied to one or both sides of the substrate or base structure; and using the substrate or base structure as the support structure of a ~~long nip press or other papermaking belt~~ the industrial fabric.

Art Unit: 1731

19. (Currently Amended) An industrial fabric comprising a laminated substrate or base structure, said laminated substrate or base structure comprising: a number of separately formed layers; said layers joined together by warp knitted or stitch bonded yarns; wherein at least one of the layers is a reinforcing layer and at least one of the layers is a layer for inhibiting flow-through of coatings to be applied to one or both sides of the substrate or base structure, wherein the substrate or base structure is ~~used as the support structure of a long nip press or other papermaking belt~~ the industrial fabric.

38. (New) The method of claim 1, including the step of using the substrate or base structure as the support structure of a long nip press or other papermaking belt.

39. (New) The fabric of claim 19, wherein the substrate or base structure is the support structure of a long nip press or other papermaking belt.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13, 15-30, and 32-39 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-13, 15-30, 32-35, and 38-39 are allowed, because the prior art does not disclose or suggest an industrial fabric comprising a laminated substrate or base structure which comprises layers joined together by warp knitted or stitch bonded yarns, wherein at least one layer is a reinforcing layer, at least one layer inhibits flow-through of coatings to be applied thereto, and wherein the laminated or base structure used as a support structure for the fabric.

Claim 36 is allowed, because the prior art does not disclose or suggest an industrial fabric comprising a laminated substrate or base structure which comprises layers joined together by warp knitted or stitch bonded yarns, wherein at least one layer is a reinforcing layer, at least one layer inhibits flow-through of coatings applied thereto, and wherein the coated substrate or base structure has grooves or blind drilled holes.

Claims 37 is allowed, because the prior art does not disclose or suggest an industrial fabric comprising a laminated or base structure which comprises layers joined together by warp knitted or stitch bonded yarns, wherein at least one layer is a reinforcing layer, at least one layer inhibits flow-through of coatings to be applied to surface thereof, and wherein the surface has grooves or blind drilled holes.

Art Unit: 1731

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed November 27, 2006 have been fully considered.

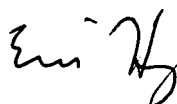

In view of the arguments and amendments to the claims, Applicant has overcome the rejection set forth previously under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) over Davenport (US 6,718,896). Applicant has also overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, and the claim objections set forth previously.

Art Unit: 1731
